

B'Mitzvah Tutor

Position Summary:

Rodef Shalom Congregation is looking for passionate part-time B'Mitzvah tutors with availability during weekday afternoons Monday - Thursday (with some potential for Sunday afternoons) for appointments generally between 3:30-8:00 pm in person.

Ideal candidates will be knowledgeable in Torah and Haftarah trope (Binder), Hebrew prayers in common Reform melodies (or an ability and willingness to learn them), and have experience with tutoring. We are looking for someone who is able to connect with learners of different learning styles and abilities and is dedicated to engaging our children and families and instilling in them a love for Judaism.

Compensation:

$30 per hour

Institutional Background:

Rodef Shalom Congregation was founded in 1856. Its storied history as one of the preeminent Reform congregations in North America is matched by its current standing in the Jewish community locally, nationally and globally as a progressive leader in defining Reform Jewish practice for the 21st century. Based upon the egalitarian and inclusive principles of Reform Judaism, Rodef Shalom Congregation is a house of worship for all people and a safe environment. We welcome all individuals and families to pray, learn, partake in social activities and join in social justice and social action initiatives as well as other congregational opportunities.
